Admission Process for Probable Vacant Seat through CUET-PG/Non-CUET

Central University of Rajasthan is inviting online applications from candidates for admission to various PG programmes on probable vacant seats. Registrations from both CUET and Non CUET candidates are invited for such vacancies.

The last date for online registration is 15/07/2026.

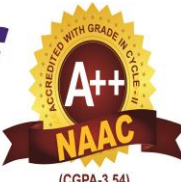

The following are the general guidelines:

1. Candidates having valid CUET-PG Score card are eligible subject to the Test Paper Code of the concerned programme as mentioned in eligibility.
2. Candidate who have not appeared in CUET-PG are also eligible for registration in the concerned PG programmes.
3. Candidates are advised to ensure their eligibility as per the chosen programme before applying to any programme. The eligibility criteria are displayed on the University website.
4. Please note that candidates who had applied on CURAJ admission portal earlier but didn't pay the academic fee may also apply for admission through a fresh registration.
5. The Departmental Admission Committee (DAC) will check the eligibility of all the candidates who have paid the registration fee against the probable vacant seats. The respective Department may contact the candidate for any clarification related to his/her candidature and may also ask for the resubmission of the documents if required.
6. If the candidate is found ineligible during the document verification stage, his/her candidature will be made ineligible to take admission in that programmes.
7. After the eligibility check by the DAC, the list of eligible and not eligible candidates will be displayed on the University website.
8. CUET - PG – 2026 scores will remain the primary criteria for preparing the merit list for admitting students along with the minimum education qualification of the University.
9. Priority will be given to the candidates who have appeared in CUET- PG – 2026. These candidates will be given preference and will be considered for admission in the order of merit (CUET-PG score).
